I am building a new house and I don't know how to coordinate the colours throughout the house.

I don't have time to select and purchase the right finishing touches.

I need help deciding on a type of flooring.

I don't have time to go all over the city to look at furniture.

I need help choosing exterior paint and trim colours.

My house looks like a patchwork quilt! I need to pull it together.

I need a second opinion before I paint or wallpaper.

I need help to select styles and fabrics for my window treatments.

My home is dated, I want a new, fresh look.

I want to mix prints and patterns but don't know how.

My new furniture doesn't work the way I thought it would.

My existing draperies are dating my home.

"Decorating should be enjoyable and interesting, not a chore."

Susan Campbell, owner

I like to decorate, but I need an hour or two of advice to make sure I am on the right track.

I want to revamp my home for selling.

My house feels cluttered. I need help to rearrange the existing accessories.

My paint colours clash!
